DR 1994-098042

IT IS ORDERED referring this matter to Expedited Services for modification of child support to be effective August 1, 2001.

Based on agreement of the parties,

IT IS ORDERED the YMCA childcare costs for summer camp and school intercessions should be included on the child support worksheet as childcare costs.

IT IS ORDERED Mother shall provide health insurance for the child.

IT IS ORDERED, on an interim basis, Father shall pay $300.00 a month to Mother as and for child support.

IT IS ORDERED from this date forward Father's child support payments shall be mailed to the Support Payment Clearinghouse, P. O. Box 52107, Phoenix, Arizona 85072-2107. The payment should show the case number and/or ATLAS case number and the name of the party paying support and the name of the party who will receive the payment.

If payments are made directly to the person who is to receive the support, the payments may be considered a gift and no credit will be given towards the support obligation.

Any change in the paying party's employment and any change in the residential address of either party must be submitted to the Clerk's Office, in writing, within ten (10) days of the change (A.R.S. 25-322(C)). Failure to notify the Clerk's Office of any change may be considered contempt of Court.

Arizona Revised Statutes Section 25-503(I) states that, with certain exceptions, an unpaid child support judgment that became a judgment by operation of law (this means that it became a judgment when it was due and unpaid) expires three years after the emancipation of the last remaining unemancipated child who was included in the court order unless it is reduced to a formal written judgment by the court. An Obligee must apply in writing to the court to obtain a formal written judgment.

Based on agreement of the parties,

THE COURT FINDS Father has made the following direct payments to Mother for child support: $350.00 in August of 2001; $350.00 in September of 2001; $300.00 in October of 2001; $300.00 in November of 2001; $300.00 in December of 2001; and $150.00 in January of 2002.

IT IS ORDERED Father be given credit for these child support payments.

IT IS ORDERED, based on agreement of the parties, that Father owes $400.00 to the YMCA for his share of past childcare costs and that Father will pay that debt on or before Memorial Day, 2002, directly to the YMCA.

On reasonable request both parties are entitled to have equal access to documents and other information concerning the child's education and physical, mental, moral and emotional health including medical, school, police, court and other records directly from the custodian of records or from the other parent.

Both parents should have the right to participate in school conferences, events, and activities and the right to consult with teachers and other school personnel.

Both parents should have the right to authorize emergency medical treatment, if needed, and the right to consult with physicians and other medical practitioners involved with the child. Both parents must advise the other parent immediately of any emergency medical/dental care sought for the child, cooperate on health matters pertaining to the child, and keep one another reasonably informed. Upon request, both parents shall keep each other informed as to the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all medical/dental care practitioners involved with their child.

Neither parent may use corporal discipline in an attempt to correct the child's misbehavior nor allow another to do so.

Each parent must inform the other parent of any change of address and/or telephone number in advance of the change.

Each parent must encourage love and respect between the child and the other parent. Neither parent should do or say anything, nor allow others to do or say anything, which would undermine the other parent's relationship with the child.

2:03 P.M. Hearing concludes.

This minute entry is signed as the formal order of the Court.
